THE MINISTER OF EDUCATION

One of the pleasant duties which I am called upon to perform as Minister of Education is to extend to the graduates of Hamilton Teachers' College a welcome to the teaching profession in Ontario.

Your effectiveness as a teacher will be judged by your success in preparing the youth of today for roles of responsibility in industry, education, statesmanship and the professions in the highly complex world in which he will live tomorrow.

I trust that you will seek to establish sound educational objectives compatible in content and pedagogic method with the rapidly changing conditions under which we live. In keeping with the nature and the progress of scientific achievement, your authority will at times be questioned and the traditional classroom atmosphere may have to give way to more modern concepts which take into consideration changing notions regarding learning theory and greater attention to individual differences. I have every confidence that as truly professional teachers you will accept the challenge and will face the future with assurance, determined to add your contribution to the substantial achievements made by the great teachers of the past.

I wish you success in your endeavours.

William G. Davis
Minister of Education

DEDICATION

This year, we dedicate the "She Log" to those individuals who have made our theme "Those Were The Days My Friend," possible.

So all those Masters who came to the aid of our College at the beginning of the year.

So all those involved in the organization of our get acquainted party.

So the individual or individuals responsible for forcing our P.A. system to work above and beyond the call of duty.

So the individuals who, through their carelessness, caused our pop machine to go out of order.

So the individual or individuals responsible for the closing of our library.

So those individuals who came, and saw, and conquered, and are now leaving.

Finally, to the small, but courageous staff of "The Log" who once again managed to keep "The Log" afloat.

THE ACTING PRINCIPAL

The year 1968-69 began with the largest enrolment in the history of Hamilton Teachers' College. It has been a year of innovation — a revised curriculum for the one year course and the course for university graduates, a college organization involving three panels, large group lectures and seminar discussions in teaching methods, expanded use of films, film strips and closed circuit television. Many experienced the open-concept type of instructional technique in the practice schools. The new concepts have placed an increased emphasis on the knowledge and skill of the teacher. The year heard discussions regarding the implications for education of the report, "Living and Learning". Late in the year came the report on religious education. The college discontinued the annual church service.

In a period of transition from the traditional, care must be taken that the fundamental purposes of education are not side-tracked. At no point in time has the need for moral retrenchment been more vital. Here the personal qualities possessed by the teacher are indispensable. The teacher requires a dedication and an attitude toward the fundamental issues of teaching in particular and of life in all its varied aspects. Only so is he going to fulfill his role in the educational systems into which he is now privileged to enter.

R. H. Brayford, B.A., B.Paed.
Acting Principal

THE ACTING VICE PRINCIPAL AND DIRECTOR OF PRACTICE TEACHING

N. H. STEVENSON, B.A., M.Ed.

For thirteen years or more you have been students. For a few short months you have been student teachers and now face the future as teachers of students.

It is hoped that your period of teacher education has prepared you to emulate the best teaching to which you have been exposed, to see situations always through the eyes of the learner and to face your professional career as one who will never cease to learn.

Ahead there lies the challenge of the unknown. May you realize that the important days are those which lie ahead. May you see teaching from the perspective of a high hill.

N. H. Stevenson

ASSISTANT DIRECTOR OF PRACTICE TEACHING

It has been said that only those with the patience to do simple tasks will learn to do difficult tasks easily. This statement seems especially appropriate to the problem of learning to teach.

We have tried this year to set you on the road to doing difficult tasks easily. Your continued growth in the profession will require patience, imagination and the wisdom never to mistake personal whim for professional judgment.

May you experience the joy which accompanies personal achievement and the satisfaction which comes with serving others as you practise your chosen profession.

R. M. McKay

R. McKAY, B.A., B.Ed.

EDITOR

WILLIAM LOFTS

Being part of the staff of The Log this year, allows me to relive many of the memories of the past year at Hamilton Teachers' College. We, the staff, hope that you will also be able to share this nostalgia as you page through the book.

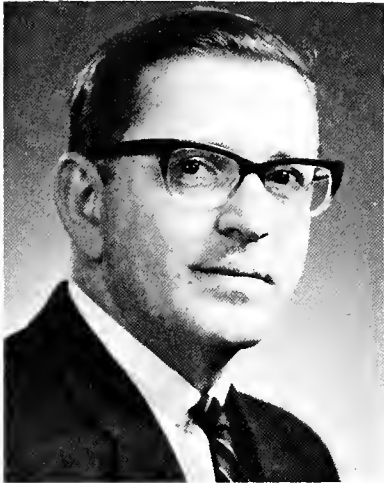

Our goal was to report the events of the past year chronologically and accurately. To this end we have applied our efforts. Where we have failed we seek your patience and offer our apologies.

To the many people that have taken an interest in the book and to those that have freely offered their cooperation, we owe our gratitude.

Although we of the year book staff have devoted our time to recording the immediate past, we realize that the most important aspect of the College is the future. We wish the Class of '69 good luck in all their future endeavors and sincerely hope that as they look back on the past year, they can truly say, "Those were the days, my friend."

I expect you all to stand up !

How long did you say it would take this hair to dry?

Caught in the Act.

Are you sure Mr. Clean will show up?

I'm so dizzy, my head is spinning.

FORM 5

FORM 6

A collage of 25 black and white photographs of students in various social settings. The photos are arranged in a non-linear fashion, overlapping and scattered across the page. The subjects are mostly young men and women, likely high school or college students. The settings include indoor spaces like classrooms or common areas, and outdoor scenes. The photos capture a variety of moments: some are formal portraits, others are candid shots of students interacting, laughing, or posing. Notable photos include a student in a graduation cap and gown, a student in a suit and glasses, and a student in a dark jacket. The overall tone is nostalgic and captures the essence of student life.

STOP LOOK AND SEE !

Helen Keller was once asked what she thought was the worst calamity that could befall a person. She replied, "To have eyes and fail to see."

A stupendous variety of life surrounds — infinite form, infinite beauty. The more intense our awareness of this variety, then the more alive we are. The camera merely extends our vision, and records the image for all time. The use of photography as a teaching aid is limited only to the imagination of the teacher.

A Tale of Tails

BY ELIZABETH H. MACPHERSON

My cat has a tail she can swish when she's mad.

MENTAL EXERCISE

THOSE WERE THE DAYS

In my nailed down wooden desk
With a primer in my hand,
Books above and books below
I watch the mistress in her stand.
Dust of chalk on little hands,
Bits of paper all about
Crayon ground into the floor.
Recess time "You can't go out!"
Little flick of the strap,
Take the notes from the board,
She will tell you what to do.
Listen to her droaning. Bored.
Pictures, only, that we draw,
Little scribblings all around.
Motivation, unknown word.
Interest buried in the ground.

Laurie Elliott

TO HIM

As the weary desert traveller
Finds a cool oasis
So have I found you.
You are a deep pool
Of refreshing warmth;
Soothing, life-giving, cleansing
As I bathe in the pool
Of your presence,
The gritty coat of loneliness
Is washed from me
By the waves of your moods
And the winds of your vitality.
My smallness, conceit, and anger
Are submerged in the joy of life:
But we are far apart
And in my journeys
I grow thirsty again.

PORTRAYAL OF LOVE

Tender touches hear them speak,
Loving eyes oh bitter sweet,
Kindness, warmth, in embrace,
Sincerity, upon her face.

Guitar, small car, girl, girl, girl.
Tear drops, fears stop, love, love, love.

Smiling, laughter break her sighs,
Sparkling self exploding wide.
Consideration running free,
Mixed with sensitivity.

Phone calls, four walls, girl, girl, girl.
Dark nights, sleep light, love, love, love.

Singing comes and thoughts prevail,
Storming words and nightingales,
Voices true, voices blue,
Love's gone, love's lost, start anew.

Guitar, small car, girl, girl, girl.
Tear drops, fears stop, love, love, love.

Heart beats sound with tunes of mirth,
Restless, tranquil in their birth.
Portraits hung with sure devotion;
Seeking, loving in emotion.

Phone calls, four walls, girl, girl, girl.
Dark nights, sleep light, love, love, love.

Ron Cowley Jr.

SPELING

I'm no good at speling!
Between you and me
'rithmetic's all right, I
Can add, one, too, three.
But speling is difrunt,
It's two hard for me.
Why shud I care
If it's i bifore e?

Teecher says at soshul science,
I'm good as can be.
And jografy's a cinch
For someone like me.
But speling! Dad says
If I study hard as he
I might become a egsecative
By nineteen eighty three.

Only he didn't know
That I'd ever see
An old report card
From his scule, Prince G. . . .
Boy! He got C's on everything
Jist like me,
Except speling, and the best
He got there, was a D.

Don Suthers

BEFORE BED

Here I am, wondering why, I'm not asleep —
As the air vibrates with the cicada's hum
I watch, and listen, to the millipedes creep,
With micro toes counting a respectable sum.

Today flickers like a whispering candle.
Time has come, and gone, and finds itself
As sand, individual yet homogeneous still,
Like death, as dust upon the shelf.

An asthmatic breath, pleading sounds,
Tickle the flame of today's last burning;
A street lamp lighter doing his rounds,
The poet writes, satisfying, his yearning.

David Auld

PRACTICE TEACHING

As I entered that class of "cads"
I noticed each dressed in the latest fads,
And in among those new formed cliques
I made my way to find new kicks.
Chalk and dust upon the floor
Murmurs ceased, to a gentle roar.
To the front, to break the scene;
I timidly said, "Stand, for the Queen."
Quickly the class, jumped to their feet,
My wavering hand gave them their beat,
Upon my pitchpipe I did blow,
But no one started on that "doh".
Next they bowed their heads for the prayer,
As I bowed mine in sheer despair.
There they sat some twenty odd,
Expecting me to wield the rod.
We're taking all about the nation,
What'll I use for motivation?
Then I heard my partner cry,
The college has sent its master spy!
I tried so hard, to force a grin,
Then smiled at him as he walked in.
My time of doom had finally come,
When he sat down, on a piece of gum!
I then walked up before the class
Determined to, put down their sass.
But as I looked about the room,
I shuddered in the gathering gloom.
I shook all over as I picked up the chalk
'Cause the master's eye watched me, like a hawk.
I fumbled and dropped it, then silence still
As I ran to my purse, to take my last pill.
I gulped as I swallowed, 'cause then I knew,
Another day like this and I'd be through.
Just as they were scrambling around,
I heaved a sigh as the bell did sound.
Through the door I staggered — fast!
Down to the staff room I did run,
Hoping there to find a gun.
Back to the class I then must hurry,
In come the pupils, scurry, flurry.
I taught music and had a roar,
We laughed and sang and played the guitar.
Shaking, I turned them to horrible Math,
Hoping to deter Pipher's great wrath.
Phys. Ed. was a riot, as equipment was none,
Boy did those girls have some fun!
Then came lunch, quiet at last!
Will I live, till the day is past?
And finally ends this daytime account
Of a teacher pretending, to be education's fount.

GROLIER OF CANADA

is pleased to announce the publication of

THE NEW BOOK OF KNOWLEDGE

(alphabetical arrangement)

20 volumes — Index and Reading Guide — 9,422 pages — 6,300,000 words — 732 index pages with 85,916 entries — cross-reference for easy fact finding — 22,400 illustrations of which 13,700 are in colour — 989 maps — 1,251 authoritative world contributors.

CURRICULUM ORIENTED — CONTROLLED READABILITY

THE NEW BOOK OF KNOWLEDGE was completely conceived by educational specialists: librarians, teachers, curriculum experts, children's book authorities. It is the first encyclopedia organized in every detail expressly for use of children during the critical learning years. Content is oriented to the present and emerging curriculum in every major subject area. Every article was written with the reading level of elementary school children in mind and then tested against the Dale-Chall Readability Formula.

SCOPE

THE NEW BOOK OF KNOWLEDGE is a teaching aid to a wide range of readers, starting with Primary Graders and including students in school up to the age when they are ready for an adult encyclopedia. Students will find a wealth of information and clarification of concepts which will be useful in their schoolwork from the elementary level right up into high school.

ONTARIO PUBLIC SCHOOL MEN TEACHERS' FEDERATION
Extends Greetings to All Associate Members on the Silver Anniversary of

ONTARIO TEACHERS' FEDERATION

Twenty-five years ago, the Teaching Profession Act of Ontario was passed and simultaneously the Ontario Teachers' Federation was born.

To those who struggled to give us the beginning of our professional organization we owe an immeasurable debt.

To those who have toiled during the past twenty-five years to give this organization recognition, meaning, and worth we offer our sincere appreciation.

To those who persist and to those who join the ranks we entrust the future.

What is the future? In teaching it is service and dedication. One must go with the other and both to the children.

You, who have chosen to share our future in teaching, are urged to strive for the best. Prove that a teacher is a teacher — and so earn the right to say proudly —

"We Are Members of The Ontario Teachers' Federation".

FEDERATION OF WOMEN TEACHERS' ASSOCIATIONS OF ONTARIO

WELCOME

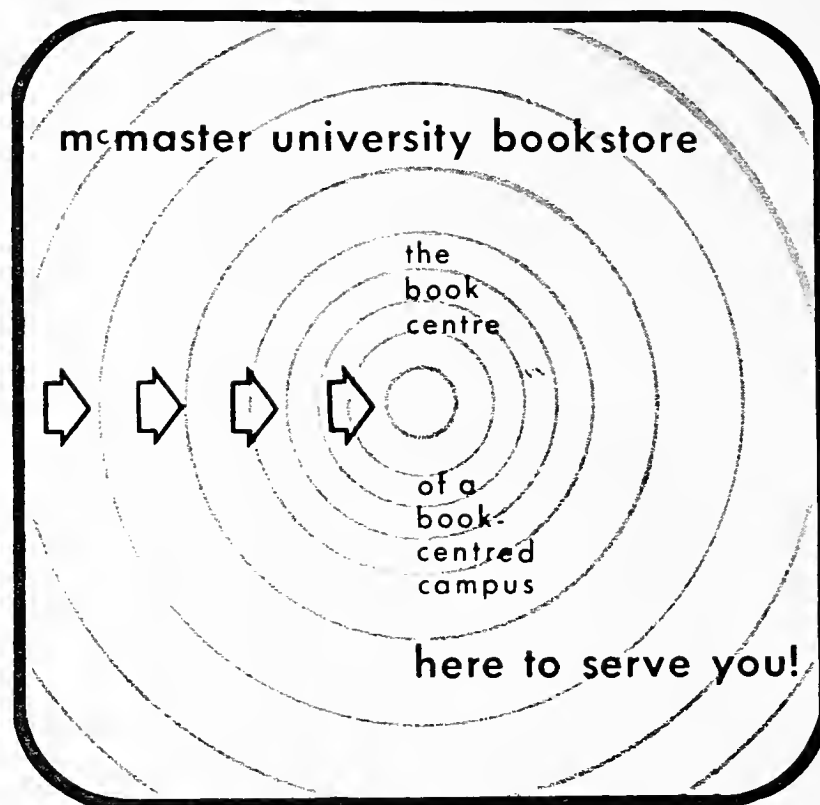

to the Federation of Women Teachers' Associations of Ontario, of which you are now associate members.

Through its local and provincial associations, Federation exists to promote and further the cause of education, to improve teaching conditions, and to raise the status of women teachers.

In turn, it places on its members a responsibility to maintain the high ethical code to which it subscribes and to uphold the honour and dignity of the teaching profession.

Best wishes for a successful and enjoyable career.

(MRS.) R. ISABEL LAWSON, Grand Valley,
President.

Something new has been added to Hamilton's image

We've been called "a lunch-pail town" for quite awhile. And we've been proud of it.

After all, Hamilton contributes a major portion of Canada's industrial and manufacturing strength.

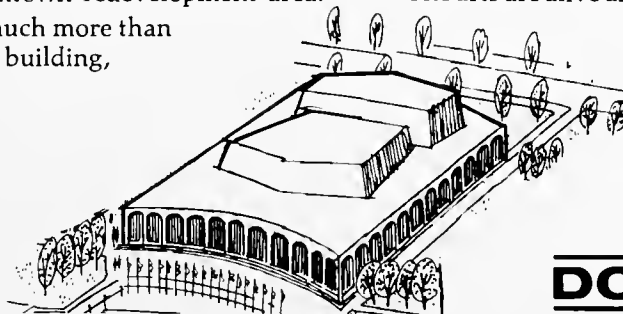

But soon, we'll have even more to be proud about, when the new Theatre-Auditorium adds lustre to our city's downtown redevelopment area.

It will be much more than a beautiful building, however. The Theatre-Auditorium will be tangible proof of Hamilton's concern for nourishing both the body and the mind.

Dofasco takes great pride in its association with Hamilton and with the citizens who have made the Theatre-Auditorium possible through their contributions.

The arts are alive and well in Hamilton.

In the plastic jungle of credit cards one has been a trail blazer for years

Long, long before the rest of the boys caught on to the convenience of credit, this little card was opening up whole new vistas of shopping ease for millions of Canadians. For years now it has made the difference between wanting and having, the difference between waiting and being able to enjoy the things you want when you want them. It also puts the country's biggest and best selection of store and catalogue merchandise right at your fingertips—and what's more, all under one roof. And, of course, it breaks the payments down into easy monthly amounts that are gentle on the budget. The card (as you may have guessed) is an Eaton Account Card and if you don't have one you're missing out on a great shopping convenience. It's honoured in every Eaton store and sales office from the Atlantic to the Pacific . . . and that makes it the big one. In fact, you might call it King of the pack.

EATON'S

There's method in his Music!

J. DOUGLAS STAPLES, music master at the College in Stratford, in selecting topics for his book "MUSIC METHODS FOR ELEMENTARY SCHOOLS" consulted recent graduates by means of a general form letter, asking them which areas of their music program they felt themselves competent to handle, and which they wished they had been prepared for in greater depth.

THE RESULT was the publication of a handbook which has already proven to be of great assistance to those just beginning and those experienced in teaching music in elementary school classrooms.

BREVITY AND CONCISENESS, are but two of the book's distinct advantages; another is the fact that the book is the direct result of an immediate need, felt and expressed by so many beginning teachers upon whom the responsibility of teaching music in the classroom rests.

What price education?

It is beyond price! Education cannot be bought, borrowed, or inherited. The only way to obtain it, is to earn it. Stelco recognizes its value, and the increasing need for it, in today's highly-competitive atmosphere . . . and also recognizes that specialized education is denied to many deserving young Canadians through lack of funds. This is why Stelco sponsors a program of assistance to universities, technical schools, and students across Canada, by providing awards, scholarships and bursaries in Technology, Engineering, Science, Business Administration, Teaching, Commerce, and Finance.

For further information on this program, or on a career in steel, write to Stelco's Head office in Hamilton, Ontario.

it's all there . . .
when you want to read it

The most complete news coverage in this area, besides features for every member of the family is provided by the Spectator. But more important, you can read all the news at your own pace, relax and enjoy it. You don't have to read the sport news at 6.45, the international news at 7.00, the local news at 7.15. . . . It's all in the Spectator . . . and more, when you want it.
